

Terms and Conditions of Use

Platform: Minus Creators

Service Provider: Redemptionware

Contact Email: minus89@gmail.com

Effective Date: May 21, 2026

These Terms and Conditions of Use govern access to and use of Minus Creators, a platform designed for users and creators to upload, store, publish, share, read, discover, and interact with fan art, illustrations, comics, manga, webcomics, stories, profiles, comments, and other creative content.

By creating an account, uploading content, commenting, browsing, or otherwise using Minus Creators, you agree to be bound by these Terms. If you do not agree, you must not create an account or use the platform.

These Terms are intended to establish rules for user-generated content, copyright compliance, account safety, moderation, and platform operation. Redemptionware recommends obtaining independent legal review before publication or enforcement, especially if the platform operates in multiple jurisdictions.

1. Definitions

For purposes of these Terms:

- "Platform" means the Minus Creators website, application, servers, systems, services, features, tools, and related digital environments operated by Redemptionware.
- "User" means any person who accesses, browses, creates an account, posts, uploads, comments on, reads, or otherwise uses the Platform.
- "Creator" means a User who uploads, publishes, or shares content through the Platform.
- "User Content" means any fan art, illustration, manga, comic, webcomic, story, text, comment, profile information, avatar, image, file, link, caption, title, description, or other material uploaded, posted, submitted, stored, or shared by a User.
- "Platform Content" means the Minus Creators name, branding, interface, software, code, databases, documentation, policies, designs, text, systems, and other materials owned or licensed by Redemptionware.

2. Account Registration and Acceptance

Certain features may require you to create an account. By registering, you represent and agree that the information you provide is accurate, current, and complete, and that you will keep it updated as needed.

You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your login credentials and for all activity that occurs through your account. You must not create fake, automated, duplicate, misleading, or sanction-evading accounts.

By creating an account, you agree to comply with these Terms, the community rules, copyright policies, upload rules, privacy notices, and any additional policies posted by Minus Creators.

1. You will not impersonate another person, creator, company, brand, public figure, character, moderator, or representative of Redemptionware.

2. You will not sell, transfer, rent, or give access to your account in a way that creates risk, abuse, fraud, or confusion.
3. You will promptly notify Redemptionware if you suspect unauthorized access to your account.

3. Age Requirements and Minors

If you are under the age of majority in your jurisdiction, you may use the Platform only with permission and supervision from a parent, legal guardian, or other authorized representative. By allowing a minor to use Minus Creators, the parent or guardian accepts responsibility for the minor's use of the Platform.

Redemptionware may restrict, suspend, or delete accounts, limit features, request verification, or remove content when necessary to comply with applicable law, protect minors, or protect the community.

4. Nature of the Service

Minus Creators is a platform for hosting, publishing, discovering, and interacting with user-generated creative content. Redemptionware does not create, pre-approve, endorse, verify, or guarantee all User Content posted on the Platform.

Each User is solely responsible for the content they upload, publish, share, comment on, or link to. Redemptionware may review, moderate, restrict, remove, disable access to, or preserve content when it believes that doing so is necessary to enforce these Terms, respond to complaints, comply with law, protect the Platform, protect other Users, or reduce legal, safety, or technical risk.

5. Ownership of User Content

Your original content remains yours. When you upload or publish User Content on Minus Creators, you do not transfer ownership of your copyright or other intellectual property rights in your original works to Redemptionware.

You keep the rights that you legally own in your original illustrations, comics, manga, characters, stories, descriptions, and other creative works. However, you are solely responsible for ensuring that you actually own or have permission to use every element included in your User Content.

6. License You Grant to Minus Creators

By uploading, posting, submitting, or making User Content available on Minus Creators, you grant Redemptionware a limited, non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license to use that User Content only as reasonably necessary to operate, provide, protect, improve, and promote the Platform and the content available on it.

This license does not make Redemptionware the owner of your User Content. It allows the Platform to technically host, display, process, and make your content available to other Users according to your selected settings and the Platform's functionality.

1. Store, host, process, reproduce, back up, cache, and transmit your User Content through the Platform.
2. Display, publish, distribute, and make your User Content available within Minus Creators, including on profiles, feeds, libraries, search results, tags, rankings, recommendations, categories, and featured sections.
3. Create technical adaptations such as thumbnails, previews, resized images, compressed files, format conversions, metadata processing, accessibility adaptations, content safety scans, and device-compatible versions.

4. Use your User Content, username, title, cover image, and public profile information to promote Minus Creators and content available on the Platform, including through social media posts, newsletters, previews, banners, screenshots, or promotional materials, with reasonable attribution when practicable.
5. Preserve content, records, logs, or copies when needed for security, legal compliance, dispute resolution, copyright reports, moderation, fraud prevention, or enforcement of these Terms.

7. Removal of Your Content

You may delete your User Content or request account closure using available Platform tools or by contacting Redemptionware at minus89@gmail.com. Deletion may not be immediate and may not remove copies already viewed, downloaded, shared, cached, backed up, or preserved by others or by technical systems.

Redemptionware may retain limited copies or records when necessary for backup, legal compliance, copyright enforcement, investigation of abuse, dispute resolution, security, fraud prevention, or legitimate business records.

8. Fan Art, Derivative Works, and Third-Party Characters

Minus Creators may allow Users to post fan art or works inspired by third-party characters, series, games, movies, comics, brands, celebrities, or fictional worlds, but only when the User has the necessary rights, permissions, licenses, legal basis, or authorization to do so.

Drawing or creating an image yourself does not automatically give you rights to characters, logos, brands, names, worlds, storylines, designs, or other protected elements owned by third parties. Fan art may still infringe copyright, trademark, rights of publicity, privacy rights, contract terms, platform rules, or official fan content policies.

By uploading fan art, parody, tribute works, crossover works, adaptations, edits, remixes, or derivative works, you represent that your use is lawful and that your post does not falsely suggest sponsorship, affiliation, approval, endorsement, or an official relationship with any third-party rights holder.

9. User Representations and Warranties

Each time you upload, publish, submit, or share User Content, you represent and warrant that:

1. You are the author or lawful rights holder of the User Content, or you have all permissions, licenses, and authorizations required to upload and publish it on Minus Creators.
2. Your User Content does not infringe or violate copyrights, trademarks, trade dress, design rights, moral rights, privacy rights, publicity rights, image rights, contractual rights, or any other rights of a third party.
3. Your User Content is not stolen, copied, scraped, leaked, pirated, reposted without permission, or taken from another creator, website, app, social media account, manga, comic, book, game, film, show, brand, or platform without authorization.
4. You have permission from any identifiable person shown or referenced in your User Content when such permission is required by law.
5. Your User Content does not contain unlawful material, malware, phishing links, harmful code, deceptive advertising, spam, or content designed to manipulate metrics, rankings, votes, comments, or visibility.
6. Your User Content complies with these Terms, the community rules, copyright policies, upload rules, and applicable law.

10. Prohibited Content

You must not upload, post, share, link to, comment with, promote, or distribute User Content that:

1. Infringes copyright, trademark, design rights, publicity rights, privacy rights, image rights, moral rights, contractual rights, or any other rights of third parties.
2. Is stolen, pirated, copied, leaked, scraped, unauthorized, or reposted without the rights holder's consent.
3. Uses third-party characters, brands, logos, worlds, names, images, or protected elements in a way that is unauthorized or likely to confuse people about an official affiliation, sponsorship, or endorsement.
4. Contains child sexual abuse material, sexual exploitation of minors, sexualized depictions of minors, or any content involving abuse or exploitation of children.
5. Contains explicit sexual material, graphic nudity, or adult content that is prohibited by Platform rules or applicable law.
6. Promotes hatred, violence, harassment, discrimination, or dehumanization against people or groups based on race, ethnicity, nationality, religion, sex, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, age, immigration status, social condition, or other protected characteristics.
7. Threatens, harasses, bullies, stalks, intimidates, doxes, defames, humiliates, impersonates, or exposes private information about another person.
8. Encourages, glorifies, instructs, or facilitates self-harm, suicide, real-world violence, terrorism, abuse, criminal activity, animal cruelty, or dangerous conduct.
9. Contains gratuitous gore, extreme violence, cruelty, or shocking content that Redemptionware determines is inappropriate for the Platform.
10. Contains spam, scams, phishing, malware, misleading links, fake giveaways, fraudulent offers, deceptive monetization, or content made primarily to redirect traffic away from the Platform.
11. Manipulates or attempts to manipulate views, likes, ratings, rankings, comments, recommendations, reports, or other engagement metrics through bots, scripts, paid engagement, coordinated abuse, or multiple accounts.
12. Violates any law, regulation, court order, platform rule, or legal obligation.

11. Community Conduct

Users must treat other members of the Minus Creators community with respect. Comments, messages, profiles, usernames, titles, descriptions, tags, and interactions must not be used for harassment, abuse, discrimination, threats, sexual exploitation, spam, manipulation, doxing, impersonation, or fraud.

Redemptionware may delete comments, remove posts, limit visibility, restrict functions, disable messaging, suspend accounts, or permanently terminate accounts when it believes that community rules or these Terms have been violated.

12. Copyright and Rights Infringement Reports

If you believe that content on Minus Creators infringes your copyright, trademark, image rights, privacy rights, or other legal rights, you may submit a report to minus89@gmail.com. Your report should include enough information for Redemptionware to identify the allegedly infringing material and evaluate the claim.

A report should include:

1. Your full name or legal entity name and your contact email address.
2. Identification of the work, character, mark, image, or right that you claim has been infringed.
3. The exact URL, post title, username, screenshot, or location of the allegedly infringing content on Minus Creators.
4. A clear explanation of why you believe the content infringes your rights.
5. A good-faith statement that the disputed use is not authorized by the rights holder, its agent, or the law.
6. A statement that the information in your report is accurate and that you are the rights holder or authorized to act on behalf of the rights holder.
7. Your physical or electronic signature, which may be your full legal name typed at the end of the email.

13. Response to Rights Reports

After receiving a report, Redemptionware may request more information, forward the report to the User who posted the content, remove or restrict the content, disable access to the content, suspend the User's posting privileges, terminate the account, or take any other action it considers appropriate.

Redemptionware may reject incomplete, abusive, fraudulent, unclear, or unsupported reports. Submitting false, misleading, or bad-faith reports may result in account restrictions, liability to affected Users, and any remedies available under applicable law.

14. Counter-Notices and Disputes

If your content was removed or restricted because of a rights report and you believe the removal was a mistake, you may contact Redemptionware at minus89@gmail.com with an explanation and supporting information. Redemptionware may, but is not required to, restore the content, request additional information, or maintain the restriction depending on the circumstances and applicable law.

Disputes about ownership, licensing, fan content, fair use, parody, permissions, or other legal rights are between the relevant parties. Redemptionware is not a court and does not provide legal determinations for private disputes.

15. Repeat Infringer Policy

Redemptionware may suspend or permanently terminate accounts that repeatedly infringe copyrights, trademarks, or other rights of third parties. Depending on the seriousness of the violation, Redemptionware may act after a single incident, especially where the content appears to be stolen, pirated, illegal, harmful, fraudulent, or likely to expose the Platform or community to significant risk.

Enforcement actions may include:

1. Warning the User.
2. Removing or disabling access to content.
3. Reducing content visibility or limiting features.
4. Temporarily suspending the account.
5. Permanently terminating the account.
6. Blocking related accounts, devices, identifiers, or attempts to evade enforcement.
7. Preserving logs, evidence, and records for legal, security, or enforcement purposes.

8. Communicating with rights holders, service providers, payment providers, hosting providers, law enforcement, or authorities where appropriate.

16. Moderation, Suspension, and Account Termination

Redemptionware reserves the right to moderate, review, remove, hide, restrict, demonetize, disable, suspend, or terminate any content, feature, or account, with or without prior notice, where Redemptionware reasonably believes that:

1. These Terms, community rules, copyright policies, or Platform policies have been violated.
2. The content may infringe copyright, trademark, privacy, publicity, image, contractual, or other rights.
3. The User creates legal, safety, security, technical, reputational, or operational risk.
4. The account is used for spam, fraud, bots, scraping, harassment, impersonation, piracy, metric manipulation, or evasion of sanctions.
5. Action is required by law, court order, government request, hosting provider, app store, payment provider, rights holder, or other third party.
6. Removal or restriction is necessary to protect the Platform, community, Users, creators, minors, or Redemptionware.

17. No Obligation to Host or Preserve Content

Minus Creators is not a permanent archive, backup service, or professional storage service. Users are responsible for keeping their own copies of original files, artwork, scripts, project files, drafts, and publications.

Redemptionware does not guarantee that any User Content, account, comment, post, statistic, ranking, message, follower count, library, or file will remain available, recoverable, or unchanged. Content may be lost, removed, restricted, corrupted, unavailable, or deleted due to moderation, user action, technical issues, legal requirements, security events, or service changes.

18. User Responsibility and Indemnification

You are solely responsible for your use of the Platform and for all User Content that you upload, publish, share, comment on, or link to. To the fullest extent permitted by law, you agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Redemptionware, its owners, operators, administrators, moderators, affiliates, contractors, service providers, licensors, and representatives from and against any claims, damages, losses, liabilities, penalties, costs, expenses, or legal fees arising out of or related to:

1. Your access to or use of Minus Creators.
2. Your User Content.
3. Your violation of these Terms or Platform policies.
4. Your infringement or alleged infringement of any third-party right.
5. Your violation of law or regulation.
6. Your interactions, disputes, or transactions with other Users or third parties.
7. Your misuse of your account or failure to protect your login credentials.

19. Platform Disclaimer

Minus Creators is provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Redemptionware disclaims all warranties, express or implied, including warranties of availability, reliability, security, accuracy, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, and uninterrupted operation.

Redemptionware does not guarantee that the Platform will be error-free, secure, available at all times, free of harmful components, compatible with every device, or suitable for any specific creative, commercial, promotional, financial, legal, or personal purpose.

20. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Redemptionware will not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, exemplary, punitive, or similar damages, including lost profits, lost revenue, loss of data, loss of content, loss of goodwill, business interruption, account suspension, content removal, reputational harm, or disputes between Users, even if Redemptionware has been advised of the possibility of such damages.

Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits liability that cannot be excluded or limited under applicable law.

21. Third-Party Links, Services, and Content

The Platform may contain links, embeds, references, advertisements, integrations, tools, payment processors, analytics services, hosting services, or other services operated by third parties. Redemptionware does not control and is not responsible for third-party websites, services, policies, content, security, availability, or practices.

You access third-party services at your own risk and should review their terms and privacy policies.

22. Platform Intellectual Property

All rights in the Platform Content belong to Redemptionware or its licensors. These Terms do not grant Users ownership of the Minus Creators name, logos, branding, interface, software, code, systems, databases, documentation, or other Platform Content.

You may use the Platform only as permitted by these Terms. You must not copy, modify, reverse engineer, scrape, reproduce, distribute, sell, license, exploit, or create derivative works from the Platform Content unless expressly authorized by Redemptionware or permitted by law.

23. Technical Restrictions

You must not:

1. Use bots, scrapers, crawlers, scripts, automated tools, or unauthorized APIs to access, copy, download, extract, index, or monitor the Platform or User Content.
2. Attempt to bypass rate limits, security features, account restrictions, moderation actions, geographic restrictions, or access controls.
3. Probe, scan, test, attack, overload, disrupt, reverse engineer, decompile, or interfere with the Platform, servers, networks, databases, or security systems.
4. Upload malware, harmful code, unauthorized tracking technology, or content designed to compromise devices, accounts, or systems.

5. Use the Platform in a manner that harms other Users, Redemptionware, hosting providers, rights holders, or the availability, performance, or security of the service.

24. Privacy and Personal Data

Use of Minus Creators may involve the collection and processing of information such as email address, username, password credentials, IP address, device data, log data, uploaded content, comments, reports, support communications, cookies, and activity on the Platform.

The handling of personal data should be described in a separate Privacy Policy for Minus Creators. By using the Platform, you acknowledge that Redemptionware may process information as needed to create and manage accounts, operate the service, provide support, moderate content, investigate abuse, comply with law, protect rights, and improve the Platform.

Users should review the Privacy Policy before creating an account or uploading content.

25. Promotions, Rankings, Recommendations, and Featured Content

Minus Creators may offer rankings, categories, badges, featured sections, recommendations, contests, promotions, events, creator programs, monetization features, or other special functions. These may be subject to additional rules, eligibility requirements, review processes, and availability limits.

Redemptionware may modify, suspend, remove, or discontinue any feature, ranking, promotion, or program at any time. Placement, visibility, recommendations, or featured status are not guaranteed.

26. Changes to the Terms

Redemptionware may update these Terms from time to time to reflect changes in law, safety practices, content policies, technical systems, business operations, or Platform features. The updated Terms will be posted on the Platform or communicated through reasonable means.

Your continued use of Minus Creators after updated Terms become effective means that you accept the updated Terms. If you do not agree, you must stop using the Platform and may request account closure.

27. Termination of the Service

Redemptionware may modify, suspend, restrict, discontinue, or terminate all or part of Minus Creators, including categories, features, content, accounts, or availability, at any time and without liability to Users, to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Users may stop using the Platform at any time and may request account closure by contacting Redemptionware at minus89@gmail.com or by using available account tools.

28. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms will be governed by the laws applicable to Redemptionware and the operation of Minus Creators, except where mandatory consumer protection, privacy, copyright, platform, or other laws provide otherwise. Any dispute will be submitted to the competent courts or dispute resolution forum determined by applicable law.

Because governing law and jurisdiction depend on where Redemptionware is legally established and where the Platform operates, Redemptionware should complete this section with advice from a qualified attorney before publishing the Terms.

Account Creation Acceptance Text

Recommended checkbox text

By creating my account, I confirm that I have read and agree to the Minus Creators Terms and Conditions of Use, Privacy Policy, Community Rules, and copyright policies. I understand that I am responsible for all content I upload, publish, comment on, or share; that I must own or have permission to use the content; and that my content or account may be removed, suspended, restricted, or permanently terminated if I violate these rules, infringe copyright, trademarks, privacy, image rights, publicity rights, or other third-party rights, or misuse the Platform.

Pre-Upload Warning Text

Recommended upload notice

Before publishing, confirm that this content is yours or that you have permission to upload it. Do not upload stolen, copied, pirated, leaked, reposted, scraped, or unauthorized material. Do not upload content that infringes copyright, trademarks, characters, brands, image rights, privacy rights, publicity rights, or other rights of third parties. If you break these rules, your post may be removed and your account may be suspended or permanently terminated.

Creator Responsibility Notice

Recommended profile or upload-page notice

Creators keep ownership of their original works. Minus Creators only receives a limited license needed to host, display, process, promote, protect, and operate the Platform. However, creators are responsible for ensuring that their uploads are lawful and do not use third-party characters, brands, or protected works without permission or a valid legal basis.
